12/6 - The day the first $MMTLP Corporate Action was posted.

12/13* - There's NO Ex Date!

12/14 - According to this screenshot was the "Record Date". This is interesting because it's a day after @FINRA allegedly DELETED the Trading Symbol and the brokerages began handing out Contra CUSIPS.

My theory is after they removed what they removed from all investor accounts on 12/13, they then "Recorded" what was in place on 12/14... Then they eventually tried to Pay the Dividend to whomever they could.

12/15 - Pay Date - This a day after what META said and a day after what was in the first Corporate Action but we know we didn't all get Next Bridge shares 12/15.

Basically this screenshot contradicts FINRA in many ways.
